Dear Parents, Carers and Students,

In the past two weeks I have enjoyed the opportunity to informally meet with students and families within the school community. A priority for me is to establish a positive rapport with staff, parents, carers and students in our care. Familiarising myself with classes and learning areas, and embracing celebrations including class Masses and Father's Day gatherings, has affirmed the inclusive community culture which is reflected at St. Joseph's. I look forward to ongoing opportunities to meet families and engage with students in their learning.

MAYORAL MAKE A BOOK

Last Friday afternoon, three of our students were acknowledged and presented to the Mayor of Charles Sturt Council at the Woodville Town Hall. Each of the students had written and illustrated a book which won a Mayoral Make a Book Award. We congratulate Maya (Yr.1), Emily (Yr. 4) and Holly (Yr.6).

FATHER'S DAY STALLS

On behalf of the community I would like to thank the parent volunteers who generously donated their time to purchase Father's Day gifts and organise the stalls. We hope all dads enjoyed this special day.

LIFE ED DOME

Students across year levels, including the Preschool, participated in a 'Life Ed' Incursion. The dome was located in the gym and created curiosity and excitement amongst many of the children. The videos and interactive activities focussed on promoting the importance of personal health and welling.

START SMART INCURSION

The importance of children understanding the value of money, is a life skill. Students were fortunate to attend an Incursion called 'Start Smart.' This Commonwealth Bank initiative, focussed discussion on Credit Cards, the importance of only spending what you can afford, and the advantages of saving money; an important message for individuals of all ages!

LEARNING CONVERSATIONS

Parents have been invited to book an online Learning Conversation with your child's teacher. This is an excellent opportunity to discuss their learning milestones, celebrations and ongoing challenges.

What is happening in the Preschool?

This week the children made popcorn as a gift for Father's Day. We had some help to operate the popcorn machine from some of the older school boys who make it regularly in OHSC. Portraits drawn by the children have also been displayed.

What is happening in the Preschool?

The Early Years Learning Framework states "Children are connected with and contribute to their world". Children who have the opportunity to explore relationships with other living things, and help to care for them, become socially responsible and show a respect for the environment around them.

It was an exciting week at Preschool as our incubated eggs began to hatch. We thank Craig Costello (Emilia's Dad) for organising this experience for us and we look forward to seeing them again when they are older to observe their growth and physical development.

Helping your child avoid being cyberbullied

by Martine Oglethorpe

Cyberbullying of children and teenagers is one of the greatest fears facing parents today. The thought of their child being subjected to heinous words, threats to their physical safety, as well as their social and emotional wellbeing, is something no parent wants their child to experience.

Most of the bullying behaviours we now see are happening from behind a keyboard, playing out in social media feeds and gaming chat rooms. It is little wonder parents feel overwhelmed and out of their depth, especially when for most, online is an environment that is relatively unfamiliar.

So what can we do to help our kids avoid these types of behaviours, as well as give them the skills to deal with cyberbullying behaviours should they be exposed?

- Remind them of all of the things they have control over: While it may not feel like it, we have a lot of control over what happens online. We can determine who we talk to, what we ignore, what we share, how we comment, who we follow, who we block or hide from our feeds. All of that, helps us determine who is allowed to play a role in our online experiences and ultimately what behaviours we accept on our feeds
- Give your child time away from the screens: Everyone needs a break from screens. We want to encourage regular times when a child doesn't need to be tethered to their device. Building a wider community away from the screens helps a child or teen build their sense of self worth. Keeping devices away from the dinner table also gives them a break from being socially switched on and allows them to connect with family without a device. Removing devices at night helps their active brains to switch off, and prepare for sleep.
- Role play possible responses: Discuss with your child whether they should respond to bullying or nasty online comments, if they do, then consider how they could respond. Consider the statements or types of people they ignore, block or report.
- Regularly check the privacy settings: Every app, game and social network has a settings button that enables you to determine how positive an experience your child can have on that platform and how much control they have. Visit these settings regularly to look at the options available

While nothing is guaranteed particularly when it comes to the online world, we can certainly be taking steps to help our kids. We can give them skills, encourage positive behaviours and thinking that allow them to minimise their exposure to the bullying behaviours of others.

If your child is being cyberbullied you can also access the reporting tool at esafety.gov.au
